

Don't Kill Me Mickey

Who's that on the floor? Is it brother-in-law?
In a pool of blood?
I have the strangest dreams I dream many things
I wish I knew what it was
Get me out of here Imprisoned by my fears
Oh, have you lost your mind?
I'm shot dead in a trance Call the ambulance
Oh, don't kill me Mickey

I saw a rattlesnake out in front of my place
In the hot, hot sun
Still you came for me from across the sea
Was it just for fun?
I hope you make your show
It's getting late now you better go
When I saw it was you
I was so relieved I've been so afraid of Keith

In the aftermath of a stone blood bath
I was so confused
I was feelin alive, yeah before you arrived
At least, I think it was you
I don't believe what I saw
I was overwhelmed by it all

I know I can't be sure
I think that you were the one
All I saw was lips and a gun

Oh , don't kill me Mickey
