

Great Big World

I'll go to where the ocean flows
With my feet in the sand I won't have to try
Cool breeze like silence and sympathy
With my feet in the sand I won't have to cry

It's a great big world
It comes crashing down
Never knowing why oh oh

Oh twilight reflecting upon the waves
If I close my eyes I won't have to see
Oh my stars are falling down in streams
With my head in the clouds I won't have to dream

It's a cold, cruel world
It comes crashing down
Never knowing why

It's great big world
It comes crashing down
Never knowing why oh oh
